Introduction

New Zealand food goes way beyond fish and chips and barbeques – our chefs have developed a distinct Pacific Rim cuisine. Expect to indulge in plenty of seafood, award-winning cheeses and of course, our famous lamb. You should also expect a laid-back, friendly atmosphere wherever you eat; we Kiwis love to keep things casual.

Tourism New Zealand worked closely with the Kiwi Muslim Directory to provide this guide, which gives an overview of the many Halal food options available.

You will find three categories within the listings:

Halal outlets certified by FIANZ

The outlet is Halal-certified by the authority:
Federation of the Islamic Associations of New Zealand.

Halal outlets owned by Muslims

The outlet is owned and managed by a Muslim person, and he/she is assuring the food is Halal.

Vegetarian eateries

The outlets are neither certified nor Muslim-owned, but claim to be pure vegetarian. Please check before consuming.

The information provided in this guide is verified at the time of listing.

The status of these outlets may change on an annual basis.

Please always verify all food is Halal prior to making any purchase.

Acknowledgement

Tourism New Zealand is thankful for the continued support and guidance received from Federation of the Islamic Associations of New Zealand (FIANZ) and the Kiwi Muslim Directory. They have provided us with support and a detailed overview of both FIANZ and NZIDT certified establishments.

Through this collaboration we hope to offer our Muslim visitors a memorable visit to beautiful New Zealand. For more information on services for Muslim visitors, please visit fianz.co.nz and muslimdirectory.co.nz

ABOUT THE KIWI MUSLIM DIRECTORY

Since its launch in 2009, the Kiwi Muslim Directory's vision has been to utilise web and print media to bridge the gap between the various Muslim organisations, centres, mosques, leaders, volunteers and the community.

As a continued vision to support the Muslim community, the Kiwi Muslim Directory worked closely with Tourism New Zealand to create a Halal restaurant guide that provides Muslim-friendly meal recommendations in the hopes of establishing New Zealand as a Muslim-friendly holiday destination.

Disclaimer: Kiwi Muslim Directory is not a Halal Certifying Authority. The Muslim Directory provides Halal food listings in good faith upon the basis of information provided by the Muslim retailers - verified at the time of listing and also Halal certified list. Hence we have included the names of the owners for you to ensure Halal status. We take no responsibility for the continuing accuracy of these listings until the next edition of the Kiwi Muslim Directory is launched and stress that you should verify all food is Halal prior to making any purchase. We would also request the ummah (community) to inform us at info@muslimdirectory.co.nz if you find the ownership of any outlet has changed and/or if the outlet is no longer Halal. We will update this on the website accordingly.

North Island

Starting in the far north, where New Zealand's journey to nationhood began, travel south through landscapes that blend magnificent beaches, sprawling farmlands and geothermal wonders. Māori culture is rich and ever-present in many parts of the North Island.

Discover the shopping, arts, dining and natural wonders of New Zealand cities but also be sure to explore the country's fertile heartland of lush forests, rugged mountains, and steep gorges.

Get off the beaten track and you'll be richly rewarded.

Enjoy shopping, dining and all that Auckland has to offer

Auckland is New Zealand's largest and most diverse city, and main transport hub. The region is home to 1.5 million people and is also the largest Polynesian city in the world. Imagine an urban environment where everyone lives within half an hour of beautiful beaches, hiking trails and enchanting islands. Add a sunny climate, a background rhythm of Polynesian culture and a passion for outstanding food and shopping, and you're beginning to get the picture. More than just a city, Auckland is a whole region full of things to see and do. Best of all, with so many experiences close by it's easy to hop from one adventure to the next.

Explore Hamilton-Waikato region, well-known for its diverse scenery above and below ground

Just south of Auckland lies the Hamilton-Waikato region well-known for its diverse scenery above and below ground. A myriad of adventure options await you; exploring underground caves, awesome black sand surf beaches and rolling green hills. These picture perfect pastures were chosen for filming The Shire in The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit trilogies. So, if you're a Tolkien fan, drive east to Matamata and visit Hobbiton™ Movie Set Tours, the amazing Hobbit-sized village created for the movies.

The city of Hamilton offers plentiful shopping, award-winning eateries, international gardens, and is home to New Zealand's only tea plantation, Zealong Tea. With abundant accommodation, Hamilton is the perfect base for exploring the wider region. A popular spot is Sanctuary Mountain Maungatautari - a protected environment where you can experience New Zealand's forest and wildlife as it was hundreds of years ago.

North Island

The Bay of Plenty has spectacular beaches and an active marine volcano

When the explorer James Cook arrived in 1769, he anchored off a great bay “full of plantations and villages” that he described as “a bay of plenty”. In this region of great natural abundance, the coastal city of Tauranga is a lovely place to enjoy fresh seafood, kiwifruit and avocados from dozens of surrounding orchards and gardens.

Explore further afield and visit the active volcano of White Island either by boat or via a quick helicopter ride from Whakatane. Hear the active volcano as it hisses, belches and rumbles beneath you. It’s that same geothermal activity that provides the hot pools and spas that you will find in many places where you can relax and let the world pass by.

Rotorua bubbles with mud pools, shooting geysers and natural hot springs

Experience the turbulent forces that formed New Zealand at Rotorua - one of the world's most lively geothermal fields. This unique volcanic landscape with its natural hot springs and fresh lake waters offers plenty of options for holiday fun. Experience the exhilaration of lugging, zorbing and zip-lining.

South of Rotorua, at beautiful Lake Taupō, you can go fishing or discover the magnificent Māori rock carvings at Mine Bay - a scenic boat trip or kayaking excursion. The forests and beaches surrounding the lake offer hiking and mountain biking for all levels of experience.

Spectacular highs and lows in Taranaki and Whanganui

On the North Island's western tip, Mt Taranaki's perfect cone rises from the green fertile lowlands below. Take a brisk walk along the New Plymouth Coastal Walkway or pay a visit to one of the last working lighthouses in New Zealand at Cape Egmont. Check out the art trails and browse award-winning museums and galleries.

Whanganui has its own distinctive wilderness landscape of river valleys rising to steep slopes, razor-sharp ridges and dense cover of native forest. This is backcountry New Zealand where you can take to the waters on a guided tour, follow the trails on the trails or listen to the birds in the trees - at night it's even possible to hear the call of the North Island brown Kiwi.

Palmerston North bustles with regional charm, amidst a rural outdoors

Palmerston North City in the Manawatu region is an orderly university town with a cosmopolitan population that includes a significant number of international students. The town is built on the banks of the Manawatu River and laid out around a beautiful inner city park with public art, boutique shops and art galleries.

Off the beaten track – but not far from anywhere – the countryside has an abundance of things to see and do in a natural rural playground. Book a farm stay and visit Feilding on a Friday morning to taste your way through the Farmers' Market of local produce.

Wellington, The coolest little capital in the world. - Lonely Planet

Wellington - the last stop before the South Island - sits on statuesque hills rising from a huge natural harbour. Renowned for its arts, heritage, culture and popular waterfront precinct, it is also home to Te Papa Tongarewa - the Museum of New Zealand. The Wellington Botanic Garden and cable car offer amazing views over the city, or relax at Oriental Bay, Wellington's golden-sand inner-city beach.

Wellington is known as the culinary capital of New Zealand with some of the best cafés and restaurants New Zealand has to offer so don't miss the chance to settle into a friendly café to sample the coffee and watch the locals go by.

Nelson is inspired by sunny days and fertile soils

On the northern tip of the South Island, Nelson is a region that is blessed with a sunny climate and fertile river valleys. The seas surrounding Nelson are the source of some of New Zealand's finest seafood, and the sunny coastal climate produces grapes for wine, fresh fruit and produce.

The Marlborough Sounds are the sea-going gateway to the South Island and a natural coastal paradise. Get up close to abundant wildlife such as dolphins, seals, and blue penguins and listen to the chorus of unique native birdlife in the forests. Succulent New Zealand green-lipped mussels are in abundance, along with blue cod and other fine sea foods.

Majestic Canterbury extends from mountains to sea, and everything in between

The Canterbury region is comprised of beautiful plains, soaring peaks and popular waterways. Christchurch is the gateway to Aoraki Mount Cook National Park, where you can see some of the clearest skies in the world or turn north to the wildlife wonders of Kaikoura.

Christchurch is known as 'The Garden City'. The award-winning Christchurch Botanic Gardens feature one of the finest collections of exotic and native plants found in New Zealand. Summer days are warm and filled with sunshine, while winter days are often clear and calm. Autumn brings a wonderful burst of vibrant seasonal colours to the city and spring fills the gardens with beautiful blooms.

On the other side, the West Coast region is a lightly populated wilderness, famous for its 'Pancake Rocks' and glaciers but in fact remarkable from top to toe.

Lakeside Queenstown and Wanaka are among New Zealand's top holiday destinations

Queenstown, in the southern South Island, is a lively year-round tourist destination, rated internationally as one of the world's top holiday spots. Known as an 'adventure capital', Queenstown attracts more than a million visitors annually for everything from relaxation to jet boating, rafting and bungy jumping. Queenstown visitors can spend the morning in the mountains, the afternoon exploring forest trails and river valleys, and dine al fresco by the lakeside come nightfall.

Lake Wanaka, gateway to Mt Aspiring National Park and the precious Te Wahipounamu World Heritage Area, has a spectacular landscape of soaring mountains, alpine lakes and rivers. The laid-back lakeside town draws visitors year-round; autumn is a particularly beautiful as the hills and vineyards take on the fiery hues of gold, orange and red – backgrounding the biennial Southern Lakes Festival of Colour.

Enjoy close encounters with rare wildlife and soak up Dunedin's infectious city vibe

Dunedin has a rich Scottish heritage, historic architecture, New Zealand's oldest university, and populations of curious wildlife that inhabit the nearby Otago Peninsula.

Don't miss the drive out to the Otago Peninsula for endless views and the spectacular beaches. Nestled at the top of Taiaroa Head is the Royal Albatross Centre, the only place in the world on the mainland where you can view Northern Royal Albatross in their natural habitat. On Dunedin's doorstep you will also find the world's rarest penguin colony.

To experience scenic contrasts, head north to Waitaki and Oamaru for windswept coastlines and emerald plains bordered by towering mountains. Marvel at the ancient and curious Moeraki boulders on the seaside or spot the blue penguins and Hector's dolphins playing in the waves. Admire Oamaru's grand Whitestone architecture in the heritage precinct, and hire a bike if you're keen to follow the Alps to Ocean cycle trail which goes all the way to majestic Aoraki Mount Cook.

South Island

Southland is a rugged expanse of rolling plains, wild beaches, and wilderness

Southland's largest centre is Invercargill. If you're a garden lover you must visit Queens Park and its 80 hectares of tree-lined walkways and diverse gardens. This city is the home of warm 'southern hospitality' so plan to rest a while.

Half an hours' drive south of Invercargill is the fishing port of Bluff, known for its fabulous seafood; this is the original place to taste world-famous Bluff oysters. If you like to get away from practically everything and enjoy some bird watching, catch a ferry across Foveaux Strait to Stewart Island. New Zealand's southern most outpost is where you'll find a haven for populations of native birds and your best opportunity to see the iconic kiwi in its natural habitat.
