With so much to see and do in our dramatic natural environment, it's little wonder that New Zealanders love the outdoors and travellers from all around the world visit our little slice of paradise.

New Zealand's diverse landscapes and spectacular coastline provide the perfect adventure playground for people to enjoy a huge variety of recreational activities like cycling, climbing, fishing, hunting, swimming, snorkelling and diving.

Walking options range from shorter walks on gentle, mostly flat tracks, suitable for families and those with moderate levels of fitness, to multi-day walks covering more challenging terrain for those who are a bit more adventurous! These include New Zealand's nine Great Walks that offer a variety of stunning scenery and diverse environments. www.greatwalks.co.nz

Cycling journeys through the cool of the New Zealand bush, dense with fern, dappled with light and the only sound is the call of native birds loud above the hum of your bike is what 'Nga Haerenga - The New Zealand Cycle Trail' is all about. www.ncycletrail.com

Every region of New Zealand has its own treasures. i-SITE Visitor Centres are the front door to New Zealand's unique offerings and experiences, for all visitors need to know about what to see, where to go and how to get there. www.newzealand.com/isite

The Department of Conservation (DOC) looks after a range of unique outdoor experiences, accommodation and recreation facilities on public conservation land.

To find out more about exploring New Zealand's great outdoors, visit a DOC Visitor Centre. You'll find experts on hand to ensure you are well informed and ready to go for your journey in the outdoors. www.doc.govt.nz i-SITE is New Zealand's official visitor information network with over 80 i-SITES nationwide.

i-SITE knows all the best things to do, places to stay and ways to get there. Plus they'll take care of the bookings.

Every person who works at i-SITE is a travel expert for their own home town, so they can help you to find the sorts of activities, attractions, accommodation and transport that only a local would know.

You can be sure that once you have experienced the latest and greatest of what one place has to offer, i-SITE will help connect you with their equally friendly i-SITE colleagues at the next stop on your journey.

So whether you've come around the world or down the road you can rely on i-SITE for expert local knowledge and bookings throughout New Zealand.

- Itinerary planning and information
- Bookings nationwide - accommodation, transport, activities, attractions
- Free maps, weather & mountain safety information
- Local information - events, attractions, restaurants & more!
- Many i-SITES offer free Wi-Fi - look for the logo on the map
- Most i-SITES are open every day (except Christmas Day). Some i-SITES operate reduced hours. Check www.newzealand.com/isite, Google or TripAdvisor for more information.

The Department of Conservation (DOC) looks after a range of unique outdoor experiences, accommodation and recreation facilities on public conservation land.

With a network of more than 950 huts and 320 campsites, DOC also manages a range of accommodation facilities to suit all budgets and tastes.

DOC Visitor Centres
DOC visitor centres are located nationwide and are staffed by DOC rangers who have first-hand, in-depth local knowledge about conservation places and activities. Visit to plan and prepare your outdoor adventures.

Find out about DOC visitor centre opening hours at www.doc.govt.nz/visitorcentres

New Zealand's nine Great Walks are premier tracks that pass through diverse and spectacular scenery. From native forests, lakes and rivers to rugged mountain peaks, deep gorges and vast valleys. Find out about Great Walks at www.doc.govt.nz/greatwalks

Take a break in the outdoors and get in touch with nature. Short Walks are easy to get to and great for families. Embark on an adventure in some of the most spectacular landscapes in the world. These Day Hikes are perfect for compact gateways with friends.

Find out about Short Walks at www.doc.govt.nz/shortwalks and Day Hikes at www.doc.govt.nz/dayhikes

Imagine riding through the cool of the New Zealand bush, dense with fern, dappled with light and where the only sound is the call of native birds loud above the hum of your bike.

Or, imagine a trail that rounds a wide sweeping bend to a view that simply takes your breath away - stunning snow capped peaks mirrored in a deep, still lake.

Journeys such as these exist - they are real examples of what 'Nga Haerenga - The New Zealand Cycle Trail' has on offer. 'Nga Haerenga' means 'the journeys', both in a physical and spiritual sense, which is exactly what you will experience on the New Zealand Cycle Trail.

The Great Rides are the premier rides on the New Zealand Cycle Trail. They are predominantly off-road trails that showcase the very best of New Zealand's landscape, environment, culture and heritage.

So what are you waiting for.... Start planning your cycling holiday now! Visit www.ncycletrail.com

Te Araroa is New Zealand's Trail - taking in spectacular New Zealand landscapes from beaches to volcanoes to forests to cities. The 3000km route stretching from Cape Reinga in the North of New Zealand to Bluff in the South.

Te Araroa is the greatest New Zealand adventure there is - walk it all or walk a short section ranging from a few hours to a few days. Visit www.teararoa.org.nz

Are you looking for a great experience in New Zealand? Then look out for the Qualmark, New Zealand tourism's official mark of quality.

What it means for you
When a business displays a Qualmark sign it means you can be assured that you will have a great tourism experience. You'll be able to book with confidence knowing that the business operates in an ethical, professional and environmentally sustainable way.

Qualmark star rated accommodation lets you know the quality of a property before you decide to stay the night, whether you're on a budget or looking for some 5 star luxury. Meanwhile all Qualmark Endorsed activities, service and transport providers have been checked to ensure they have the right systems and equipment in place for you to have a safe and happy holiday in New Zealand.

So how do we know this?
Tourism businesses that carry the Qualmark quality logo have chosen to be measured against stringent quality, safety and environment standards by Qualmark New Zealand.

Each business receives on-site evaluations against up to 300 specific criteria, tailored to the type of tourism experience they offer. These evaluations are conducted by Qualmark's independent business experts, who understand the high quality and service standards that New Zealand visitors demand.

Each business that you encounter displaying a Qualmark quality logo has met and is maintaining the highest quality standards, so you can be assured they represent the best tourism experiences on offer in New Zealand.

For more information visit www.qualmark.co.nz

We want you to stay safe while enjoying the great natural attractions New Zealand has to offer. Here are some websites that provide information to keep you safe.

New Zealand Police
New Zealand is relatively safe but it's not crime free. It is important to keep safe and look after yourself as you would at home. Visit www.police.govt.nz/visitor-guide
